Who we are
Who is providing this notice?	Western Alliance Bank (divisions are Alliance Association Bank, Alliance Bank of Arizona, Bank of Nevada, Bridge Bank, First Independent Bank, and Torrey Pines Bank)

What we do
How does Western Alliance Bank protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to only those employees who need to know information to provide products or services to you.
How does Western Alliance Bank collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you ■ open an account or a safe deposit box, ■ apply for a loan or make a deposit, and ■ pay your bills or use your debit card. We also collect your personal information from others, such as Credit Bureaus or other companies.
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only ■ sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness, ■ affiliates from using your information to market to you, and ■ sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you. State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
